Regarding in Educational Institutions

*239. SHRIMATI KAMALA SINHA: DR. BAPU KALDATE:

Will the Minister of HUMAN RES-OURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to sate:

(a) whether Government are aware that despite the promulgation of various Ordinances, the savage tradition of ragging of new comers, has been fast spreading in various colleges, universities and other educational institutions;

(b) if so, whether Government have critically examined the issue, to check this iendency towards saddism;

(c) if so, what measures are contemplated by Government in this direction; and

(d) whether Government have considered the question of involving psychologists and eminent educationists to find a solution to the menacing problem; if so, the steps taken by Government in this regard?

The MINISTER OF HUMAN RES-, OURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARIUN SINGH); (a) to (d) Government has drawn the attention of Vice-Chancellors of all universities, Directors of UTS, Principals of Regional Engineering Colleges and Education Secretaries of all States/Union Territories to incidents of ragging and requested them to take immediate steps to put an end to ragging and to provide new students conditions in which they feel welcome and comfortable. Delhi University has passed an Ordinance strictly prohibiting ragging within the premises of all colleges and Departments of University as well as on public transport. Similar steps can be taken by other universities where the practice of ragging prevails. As the practice of rageing id reprehensible, it is for the universities and college authorities and the studentd themselves to ensure that ragging does not take place.
